OBITUARY

WILLIAM M. POTTS

William M. Potts, a resident of Mobridge, S. Dak., for more than half a century, was born of pioneer parents in Turner County, South Dakota, on Feb. 29, 1883. He entered eternal life on July 4, 1962. He was 79 years of age.

Mr. Potts received his early education in the country schools of Turner County; his high school years were spent in the Academy at Vermillion, and he graduated from the University of South Dakota in 1906. He received his law degree from the University in 1909, and soon after, came to Mobridge and entered into partnership with J. E. Clayton, a law school classmate. He later established his own law office in conjunction with a land-locating agency.

He was united in marriage in 1916 with Angie Crowner, who was then superintendent of the Mobridge Hospital. Five children were born into the family.

He served as Walworth County judge for 26 years, and practiced law in Mobridge for more than 52 years.

Remaining to remember him are his wife and five children, and relatives and friends in this locality.
