

HANSON, Julia G. (Anderson)

October 4, 1915

Viborg

October 3, 1989

Yankton

Viborg Enterprise - October 12, 1989

Services Held For Julie G. Hanson

Funeral service for Julia Hanson was held October 6, 1989, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Yankton, South Dakota, with Pastors James Schwartz and Craig Bock officiating. Organist was Marilyn Nyberg. Pallbearers were Daryl Hanzen, Dale Korslund, John David Hazen, Art Korslund, Eugene Gorsett, and Steven Batterman. Interment was in Garden of Memories, Yankton, South Dakota.

Julia G. Hanson was born October 4, 1915, in Viborg, South Dakota. Her parents were Elmor and Sena Anderson.

She married Henry E. Hanson October 11, 1935, at Viborg, South Dakota.

They farmed for some years and then moved to Volin, and in 1972 moved to Yankton. Julia worked at Sacred Heart Hospital for some of the time. Henry passed away in September, 1982.

Julia was a member of the Trinity Lutheran Congregation. She passed away October 3, 1989, at Sacred Heart Hospital. She would have had her 74th birthday October 4.

Preceding her in death were her parents, her husband, and one grandson.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Elaine) Fickbohm, Newell, SD and Mrs. Donald (Shirley) Batterman, Glenwood, CO; two sons, Harlon, Newell, SD and Gerald, Colman, SD; eleven grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; also one brother, Marvin Anderson, Beresford, SD; one sister, Mrs. Donald (Lorraine) Gorseth, Des Moines, WA; other relatives and friends.