Rasmus Jorgensen

Another old settler has gone to his final reward. This time it was Rasmus Jorgensen, father of the Jorgensen Bros. Mr. Jorgensen has been ailing for months and his death was not entirely unexpected. He death will be felt by the entire community as he was loved by all for his honest and upright ways, and good Christian character. The funeral was held yesterday from the Viborg Lutheran church and interment took place in the Swan Lake Lutheran cemetery. A large crowd of friends and relatives accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

Rasmus Jorgensen was born Sept. 25th, 1838, in the village of Raarup by Horsens, Denmark, died June 1st, 1914, and reached the ripe age of 76 years, 8 months and 6 days. He was a veteran of the Danish-German war of 1863-64.

In the year of 1868 he married his now bereaved widow, Jacobine Johanne, born Hansen, and in 1892 he emigrated with his wife and children, with the exception of his oldest son, to America and located near Viborg, in which immediate vicinity he has resided ever since.

Besides his widow he leaves four sons and three daughters to mourn him, of which the oldest son, Sofus, is residing in Molde, Norway; Charley and Anton in Viborg; and Christian in Irene; and the daughters are: Mrs. C. T. S. Goodhope and Mrs. Pete Petersen, residing in Viborg, and Mrs. Arthur Olsen, Irene. All are well known in this community.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend thanks to our many friends who assisted and sympathized with us in our great sorrow in the death of husband and father, and to the D. B. S. for the beautiful wreath and other floral offerings.
